

proportional famous monsters overview version.0.08.2010

Eifel Tower, Paris 324 m

Fernsehturm, Berlin 368 m

Godzilla, jap. from 60 to 100 m, here about 75 m high building 45 m, ca. 18 floors

unfortunately this is you! but fortunately you are not alone :-)

Buraki
length: 200 m, from Dragon Wars

Skyscraper
height: 80 m, 30+ floors

Destroyah
from the Godzilla-series, height 65 m

Sauroposeidon largest supposed sauropod, height: 18 m

Draco
from Dragonheart

Balrog
from Lord of the Rings

a house hope it's not yours, 3 floors

Tarrasque height: ~8m, length: ~20m from the roll-play-game Dungeons&Dragons

M1 Abrams
main battle tank,
length: ~10 m

Wind turbine middle size, axis-height: ~80 m
max. rotor top height: ~115 m

Insectosaurus
from the monsters vs. aliens movie height: ~ 106 m

La Carcagne
from the 1957th movie 'The Giant Claw', wing spread over 300 m, wich means it's "...as big as a battleship!"

Statue of Liberty (NY) height: 93 m, (after cloverfield happend)

Jiger
from the jap. Gamera-Series, height: ~70 m

The Cloverfield Monster height: ~100 m, (maybe be only a baby)

Eva unit 01
~ 40m, from the japanese Neon Genesis Evangelion Series

Tripod
from the 1984th english series "the tripods"
"Die dreibeinigen Herrscher" in german

Ithaqua, The Wendigo from the Cthulhu-Myth, 14 m

Blue whale length: ~30 m, probably the biggest animal ever lived on earth (except for giant monsters)

The Kraken
length: 150+ m,
from The Pirates of the Caribbean

Sandworm
from planet Dune, ~400 m

The Beast From 20,000 Fathoms from the 1953th movie, height: ~ 20 m made by vehtoh.de credits: commons.wikimedia.org, de.wikipedia.org, youtube.com, en.wikipedia.org, imdb.com, godzilla.wikia.com, images.google.de, google.de, inkscape.org, photofre.free.fr, leo.org, all-silhouettes.com, lots of deviantart.com users, mathematics and this thing called 'time'